AIMs OF AL-AMEEN COLLEGE OF LAW { AACL }

RESEARCH COMMITTEE

The aim of the AACL Research Committee is to increase awareness about the variety of research going on the campus and instill a sense of motivation towards the same, among the student community, by promoting a thriving research culture. The wing envisions to provide a platform to budding researchers, which includes faculty and students support and guidance to the research enthusiasts and voice to those who are excelling in the Legal field. No research is ever quite complete. It is the glory of a good bit of work that it opens the way for something still better, and this repeatedly leads to its own eclipse.

How does the Research Wing work?

The Research committee routinely conducts a number of events, talks, and sessions, covering various aspects pertaining to socio legal issues of research and work guidance sessions, students orientation sessions, and workshops on legal writings. Members of the holds the responsibility of organizing these sessions with the assistance of the IQAC.

To better cultivate research interests and provide a platform to showcase the research potential in the Faculty student community, the Research committee organizes the annual flagship event: Students' workshops, seminars and judgement writing competition, and presentations on important topics which is one of the first of its kind law colleges. Members of the committee would be expected to bring in new ideas and ensure its smooth and efficient implementation.

The Research & Development (R&D) Wing has been setup in the University to provide specialized administrative and managerial support for the operation of Sponsored Research Projects, Consultancy Jobs and other related R&D activities.

The main objectives of AACL Research Committee include:

- To identify areas where research evidence could make the most difference
- To ensure that existing research facilities are used optimally
- To facilitate quality research on important research issues
- Quality checks on research work and drafting of bills
- Alumni Sponsored Research Projects
- MoU's
- Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)
- Management of students, their regulations and evaluation
- Appointment of students to do research on important High Court and Supreme Court Cases Research Projects, in case of project gets sanctioned
- Research work allotment for Staff
