AACL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services.

The Alumni Association acts as a link between the “Alma Mater” and the “Alumni”. It is moving ahead, with selfless intentions for the growth and development of the institute and the students. The association provides a platform for interaction between alumni, present students, faculty of the institute and institute administration. It has contributed significantly through financial and non-financial means during the last five years to improve the facilities and infrastructure of the college with the help of the active participation of the alumni.

Contribution of the Alumni Association:

The Alumni Association has granted free-ship Scholarships, Prizes, Financial assistance, books and stationery to the poor and deserving students, etc. at a personally appropriate level.

Various social welfare and awareness activities organized by the institute such as Workshops on DPC, Participation as Judges to the Moot Court Competitions, to train the students for moot courts, Swatchata Abhiyan, Tree plantation, Blood Donation Camp, Free Medical and eye test camp, Covid Vaccination drive and many more were implemented to create self-reliance among the present students and especially the poor and the needy.

They have provided career and vocational guidance for legal professional and career development. The members of the Association get every type of possible assistance.

The involvement of alumni in providing voluntary support and assistance to the students of AAAL is crucial to sustaining and expanding the development of the College. By setting up bridge that facilitate close relationships between alumni, students and the college, it offers significant benefits in enhancing the student experience while at college. Each alumnus experiences being a student to become a unique and diverse graduate, so all alumni have the opportunity to collaborate with the college in a variety of ways and standards.

Role model and inspiration

Alumni are an effective role model and can be easily accepted by students. As alumni return in support of the college, they bring with them credibility and ownership as part of a successful college, breathe the same air and face the same challenges that students face. Students can easily accept as guidance and inspiration the experiences shared with alumni in legal profession, professional ethics, self-discipline and character development or Judicial services, corporate services etc. In this way, alumni can help build trust, improve motivation and develop the right culture that the college wants to convey to its students.

Career mentor

Competition for entry into the workforce is becoming more intense as there are more graduates than a limited number of job openings. Job availability is very important in some sectors. During the final year of their studies, students should seriously consider their legal career prospects. This is the perfect time to guide students about their career opportunities in the alumni industry and to open the channel for student approval by gaining practical education or work experience in institutions where alumni live. Alumni are a reference to relevant faculty in meeting the needs of students and graduates in getting work in legal fields. The curriculum at the college can be improved to suit the work aspirations of the students. Al-Ameen College of Law with the help of Al-Ameen Alumni Association organizes the National Seminars, Workshops, Mock Trials, Moot Courts and Debate Competitions.

Providing Expertise

In addition, alumni can contribute to the development of new study programs at the college by providing their expertise in their business. Alumni can collaborate as guest lecturers, advisors on committees and collaborative partners on national events with the college. It enhances his alma mater development. It gives the college the opportunity to improve the students confidence and practical training to the law students.

Opportunity To Access Professional Development

The successful Senior advocates Alumni Association is a highly effective medium not only for college graduates but also for young alumni. AACL Alumni Association build a strong network within the college as well as build confidence in the college's young alumni. It helps to gain legal career opportunities. His profession and professionalism. Currently, many universities are committed to providing continuing education that will help improve the careers in the legal by offering postgraduate courses to first- or second-class honorary alumni.

Improve Student Recruitment Efforts

Alumni can encourage students, especially their family members and friends, to consider their college as an institution that offers higher education. Alumni can also show students how to participate in the legal practionars after completing their studies. College experience and the success of alumni in their work can be important factors in students choosing a college. In addition, there may be volunteer alumni ambassadors who are actively involved in student recruitment in the law firms.

Increase Efforts In Collecting Funds

Alumni, especially financially stable seniors, can reduce the financial burden on underprivileged students at college. It is like lighting a candle, which has a meaningfully positive effect on the lives of the students. The Harvard College's fundraiser also promotes the establishment of the Active Alumni Union Scholarship, supports student activities, promotes cultural events and clubs and associations, assists in the establishment of infrastructure for people with disabilities , and innovative reforms at the College. Endowment funds can sponsor important programs, scientific research innovations and support hundreds of professors in various fields of academia.

Support The College's Reputation

Alumni's opinions and positive statements regarding their college through the media or other physical or social means support the college's reputation. This affects the community due to the public perception that alumni are more aware of the challenges facing the college after working for many years at the college. Alumni who have successfully served in a variety of fields domestically or internationally attest to the quality and impact of the College's academic program, research and community. The more effective the alumni position in their work, the greater the recognition community at a particular college.
