BLANKET DISTRIBUTION TO THE PEOPLE SLEEPING ON

FOOT PATHS

It's great to hear about the social welfare campaign organized by Al-Ameen College of Law through its NSS unit to distribute blankets to the poor people in Chamrajpet and City Market areas in Bangalore. Such initiatives play a significant role in providing much-needed support to the underprivileged and homeless individuals, especially during the cold winter months.

Here are some key points about the campaign:

1. Organizer: Al-Ameen College of Law through its NSS unit.
2. Objective: To provide blankets to the homeless and poor people sleeping on footpaths in the Chamrajpet and City Market areas of Bangalore. The objective is to help them stay warm and comfortable during the winter season.
3. Date: The campaign took place on 4th January 2021.
4. Location: The campaign targeted the Chamrajpet and City Market areas in Bangalore.
5. Participants: The campaign involved the active participation of both faculty and students.

Such initiatives demonstrate the commitment of educational institutions and their students to giving back to society and supporting those in need. It's a commendable effort, and it likely had a positive impact on the lives of the people who received the blankets.
