Code of ethics policy document

The College is a community in which a large number of people live together. It is therefore essential that all members have due regard for the rights of others. College looks after the disciplinary matters and problems arising from a breach of the College rules. The College rules are intended to help preserve a happy and harmonious atmosphere for all those living and working in the College.

NEED OF ATTENDANCE

The students should fulfil the minimum required attendance for every programme both theory and practical. Students failing to meet this prerequisite will not be eligible for certification at the end of the programmes. Attendance not less than 75% of the lectures delivered in each subject of the course of instruction for the examination and in practical work whatever prescribed. In case of any genuine reason, the student or his / her guardian must inform the concerned authorities in writing, the reason of absence in advance.

RAGGING IS PROHIBITED

Ragging in any form is strictly forbidden by law. The students should not be found involved in ragging. Maharashtra prohibition on Ragging Act 1999 has the following provision for action against Ragging. Ragging within or outside any educational institution is prohibited. Whosoever, directly or indirectly commits, participates in, abets or propagates ragging within or outside any educational institution shall, on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term up to 2 years and/or penalty which may extend to ten thousand rupees. Any student convicted of an offence of ragging shall be dismissed from the educational institution for a period of five years from the date of order of such dismissal.

UNIFORM MUST

To regulate discipline and uphold decorum, a prescribed dress code is to be observed by students, which requires that they be formally dressed while on campus. The student should compulsorily wear in college campus.

LIBRARY RULES

The books are systematically arranged according to titles and subjects. The students are expected to follow the same during reference work. Mobile phones are strictly prohibited.

STUDENTS BEHAVIOUR

Students are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a manner that befits the image and standing of the institution.

Promote Responsibility: students should take responsibility for their actions and decisions. They should take the consequences of their choices, both inside and outside of the classroom.

Parental Involvement: We engage parents and guardians in discussions about student behaviour and expectations. Their support and involvement can reinforce the institution's values.

FOLLOW/ ADHERENCE TO TIME SCHEDULE

The student should reach college in time and attend the lecture as per the time table given to them. The student should complete all the term work such Internals, assignments, practical's or any other assignment as per scheduled. The students and parents should specially note that if the students fail to complete the term work regularly, he will be marked absent, he/she will not be allowed to reappear for the internals and assignments.

STUDENTS ONDUCT IN THE PREMISES

The student should note that he/she is answerable to the authorities of the institute not only for his/her conduct in the premises of the institute but also for his/her overall behaviour outside the campus. It is an extremely serious offence to endanger the safety of other members of the College by tampering with fire-fighting equipment or the alarm system.
